

Read the essence of the best books in business quickly and easily.

Read to succeed.

Problem

How do organizations enable their people to stay abreast of leading business thought quickly and easily?

Knowledge is the last great competitive advantage. The best minds in business constantly share what they know through their business books, yet the average business person reads fewer than two business books per year! The #1 limitation is lack of time.

How do organizations quickly and easily equip their people with the knowledge they need to succeed?

Solution

Subscribe to execuBooks: the easy read to succeed. Simple. Smart.

ExecuBooks are 15-minute summaries of the best books in business. Our professional writers and editors constantly review new business books, select the titles they believe most valuable to our audience and expertly distill them into 15-minute, 2,500-word summaries. We email a new title to subscribers every week in several versions for easy reading onscreen or in print.

Simple

Using execuBooks is simple.

- Estimate your corporate audience
- Choose Internet, Intranet or LMS access
- Receive a new 15-minute summary every week
